This year the dealers who plan to be on hand for the opening of the New York show will not have to miss the New Year's Eve celebration in their own home town. The opening date is just one week later than on previous years. This year it will be January 6 and last until year it will be January 6 and jast until January 12.

The present hot spell is welcomed by the accessory and tire men. Spring this year was somewhat backward and the usual spring business fell by the way-side for this reason. Added to this was the constantly increasing price of gasoline which caused a number to lay up their machines temporarily or at least curtail their use. With the coming of the hot spell though this condition has changed. Tire and accessory business is good according to all reports and everyone who owns an automobile has it in operation this weather, to get cooled off if nothing else. The Saturday half-holiday has had something to do with it also for many take advantage of the day and a half holiday which this extra afternoon give them to make week-end trips to nearby resorts. Some take the entire day Saturday using up their vacation in this manner.

TITLE SWIM WILL TRADED FOR EVERS HAVE A NIFTY FIELD New York, July 18.—Lee Mages, the Yankee outfielder, may be traded to the Boston Braves for Johnny Evers, according to reports in circulation this afternoon. Mages cost the Yankee owners 22,00 and has not played up to expectations. Evers is said to be "in bad" in Boston and also with the league officials. It is eald that the Boston and New York owners have been negotiating for three weeks.

IN POUGHKEEPSIE RACE**

Columbia's crews will not be seen on the Hudson at Poughkeepsie next year, and for several years to come, unless there is a decided change in the intercollegiate rowing situation, both at the University on Morningside Heights and elsewhere. The University will withdraw from the Intercollegiate Rowing Association, leaving Pennsylvania and Cornell as the only members, and, of course, Jim Rice, the coach, will be able to devote his services elsewhere, probably at Cornel courtney, who will coach there only in an advisory manner.

The reasons for this action are not given, but it is well known that the spany of the students in regard to rowing has been pronounced in the last few years, and it has only been by great personal endeavor on the part of Columbia against bute Kahaman advisory manner.
